

FUNDRAISING EVENT

testigo africa

www.testigoafrica.org

Monday 30 May from 7pm

at St Kilda Memo

BOOK YOUR TICKETS ONLINE!

Enjoy an evening of African-inspired entertainment, food
and a live auction.

Water is life

SUSTAINABLE WATER PROJECT, TANZANIA

THE EVENT
When Monday 30 May, 2011
7pm for a 7.30pm start

Where St Kilda Memo
88 Acland Street, St Kilda

Tickets $50, book online at www.trybooking.com/10550 Includes Tapas food

Enjoy an evening of African-inspired entertainment, food and a live auction.

MC - SIMON ROGERS Melbourne's master of live comedy, a TheatreSports legend and MC extraordinaire will host the evening.

SPECIAL GUEST - MBAPANI NGITORIA
This Masai warrior will share his experiences as a member of Tanzania's most colourful and traditional tribe.

PERFORMANCES BY Emma Leak Cosmic Creations
A combination of great light workers, dancers, stilt walkers, performers and costume creators.

Marilla Homes Singer Performs as a professional opera singer, as well as a folk singer and fronts a band which dabbles in folk, blues, country, jazz and rock.

Riley Jordan Singer
Singer-songwriter with the vocal warmth of Seal, the confessional lyricism of Joni Mitchell and the raw emotion of John Lee Hooker.

Tracey Roberts Singer
With smooth, warm and eloquent vocals, and a big voice ranging from full on blasts
to delicate whispers.

Andrew Goodone Comedian Andrew Goodone, successful Melbourne based comedian, writer, director and producer, will help you laugh your way to making a difference.

Mzuri African drum and dance Captivating, colourful, and energetic performance merging traditions with cutting edge urban interpretations.

Tracey Sawyer Documentary
Founder of Testigo Africa, Tracey will present a short film of her personal journey with the Masai and the reasons she responded so passionately to their request for help to bring running water to Longido village.

Testigo Africa's mission is to empower indigenous communities to embrace sustainable developments in water and food systems while preserving their traditions and connection to nature.